3. Most FBIS employees are engaged in dealing with information from open sources. Many are subject to periodic rotation between Headquarters and the field. A current directory would improve efficiency of operational and support activities within FBIS and enable principal Agency consumers of FBIS products to maintain better contact with those FBIS personnel who serve them. [redacted]

4. The last published directory, dated 31 January 1977, is attached for your review. This directory was classified Secret and we would propose to classify the new directory Secret and institute an individual accountability system for the directory following its issuance. [redacted]
